Dear Bill,

Your letter of December 17, 1974 reached me only last week - a trick of rerouting my mail to my new address as well as the play of the holiday vacation, I suppose. I drew up the attached memorial and am sending a copy to Connie Bolden. I hope I have included the main events of Pearl's career. I appreciated your sending the newspaper clipping, it was a great help. I also had Paul glance over my writing and he had nothing to add.

It has been a month now since I made the big move and I still feel like a fish out of water. Every time I go to the Law School I am swamped with reference questions, cries for help and complaints. Personally I am learning a lot and hopefully one day this will fall into place and benefit both me and the patrons.

Incidentally, Paul has approved my trip to Atlanta, so I shall be there for more reasons than one. (Among others I hear that Emory has an excellent Government Documents Department). Has the date of our spring workshop been set for certain? I need to report it to Catherine Porter, who is chairperson of our Subcommittee on Chapters set up by Betty LeBus from the members of AALL's Education Committee.

This is all for the moment. Best regards.

Sincerely,

Susan
